

School of Geography and Development Speaker Series Fall 2009

Friday Colloquia meet from 3:30 to 4:45 in Harvill Room 404. The series brings prominent scholars and professionals from across a range of perspectives, including human geography, spatial analytic methods, regional science, physical geography, and human-environment research.

Coffee, tea, and snacks are served from 3PM.

Coffee, tea, and snacks are served from 3PM Sharp!!!

August 28th - Welcome Back!
Meet the new students and faculty

September 11th - Marv Waterstone (University of Arizona)
A sorry state: apology excepted

September 18th - Al Bergeson (University of Arizona)
9/11: Civilizational Reflections

October 9th - Graduate Student Presentations
Kristina Bishop & Jeff Garmany

October 16th - Hallie Eakin (Arizona State University)
TBA

October 23rd - Raphael Sagarin (U of A - Institute of the Environment)
From the Tide Pool to the Stars and Back: Observational Science in a Changing Planet

October 30th - Linda Mearns (National Center for Atmospheric Research, and Institute for the Study of Society and Environment)
TBA

November 13th - Aaron Bobrow-Strain (Whitman College)
TBA

November 20th - Diana Liverman (University of Arizona)
TBA

December 4th - “My Arizona” Lecture presents: Julio Bettancourt (University of Arizona)
The Arizona Upland of the Sonoran Desert: What We Actually Stand to Lose

The 2009-2010 series is administered by the speakers committee, including: Sarah Moore, Connie Woodhouse, Ashley Coles, Heidi Hauserman, Derek Eysenbach, James Tamerius, and Paul Robbins (chair). For questions: robbins@email.arizona.edu.